Author Visit Book Order Form

Local author Tania McCartney will soon be visiting St Bede’s with her fifth Riley the Little Aviator picture book, which has been set in Canberra! She will also be bringing her brand new books – Eco Warriors to the Rescue! and An Aussie Year (out October).

Tania will be signing copies of her books (with the Riley series at a discount). If you want to purchase any for your child, please send the correct money in by Thursday 22 August.

- Riley the Little Aviator books: Hong Kong, Sydney, Melbourne and Canberra $15 each
- Eco Warriors to the Rescue! (National Library of Australia, firm cover) $18
- An Aussie Year: Twelve Months in the Life of Australian Kids (EK Publishing, hard cover), $20

Student name: __________________________________________ Class ______________

Books required and names for dedication: __________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Tania will be launching Riley and the Jumpy Kangaroo at Floriade this year! Sunday 15 September at 2pm. Get event details and learn more about Tania’s books at www.taniamccartney.com.